LOL!

What is the difference between a zebra and a horse?

A zebra has its pajamas on!

BABY ANIMAL FACTS!

- A newborn koala joey is only about the size of a large jelly bean, and it can't even see or hear.
- A giraffe calf can stand up and walk within an hour of its birth.
- Rhino calves start growing their iconic horns when they are four to five months old.
- Giant pandas are only about the size of a stick of butter at birth, and they're hairless and helpless.

HOW AWESOME IS THAT?!
